

This is the first page when user opens this application.

- In this page random some plants and leaves's details are displayed.
- User can also scroll down and see different types of plants.

This is the identifier page

- Here two icons are shown in this page.
- First is camera icon user can touch it and identify any plants.
- Second is gallery icon, user can upload plant image through their gallery and get information about their plant.

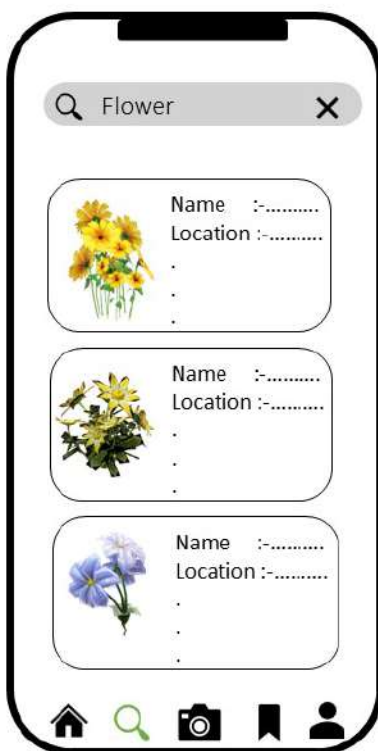

This is the Camara page of this application.

- In camara page user can start flash light for more lighting, user can also close this page using cross button.
- user can identify plant and get information about it.

This is the Gallery of this application.

- Here user can select image from gallery for identify plant.
- This is useful for identify some unseen plant from internet.
- User close this page using cross button.

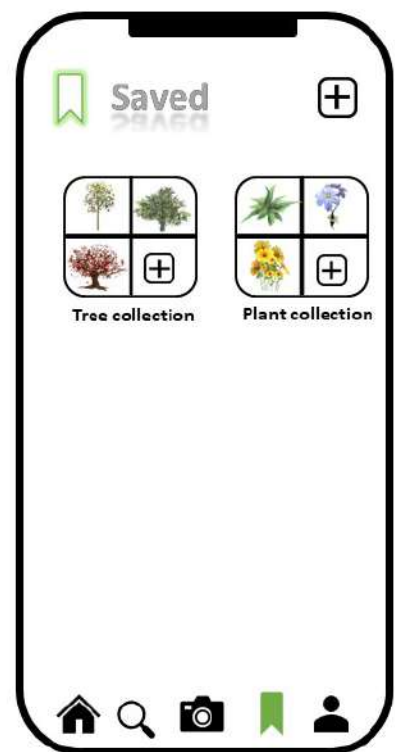

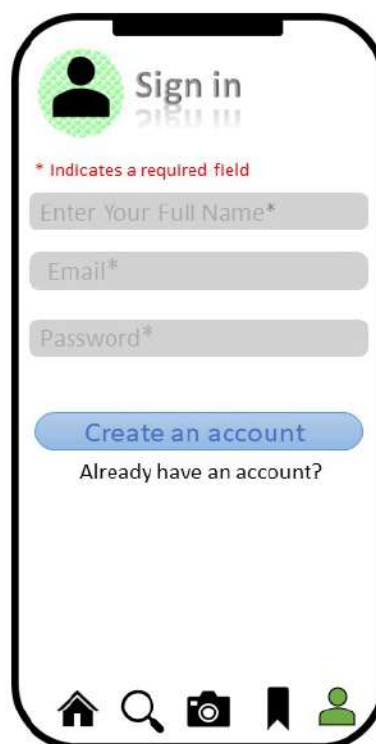

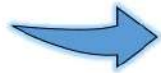

This is search page of application

- If user knew about name of the plant so, user can search plant name in search section. And get detail about that plant.

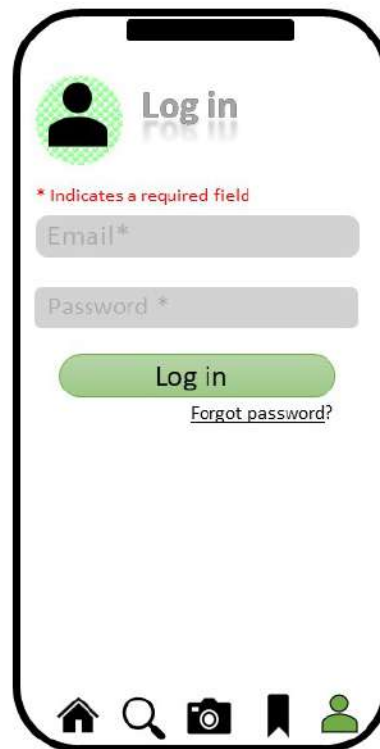

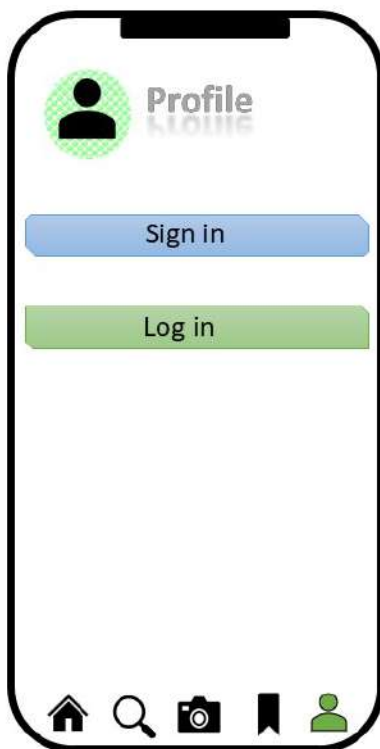

This is SAVE page of application,

- User can save their favourite plants in a favourites list for easy reference.
- Here plus icon is given for add new favorite list.
- User can also give name of their list

- This is a profile page of application.
- For sign in, there user can create their account through their name email id and password.

This is PROFILE page of application
➤ For LOG IN, user can retrieve their old accounts.